2001 NORTHEASTERN WOMEN'S SOCCER

Northeastern vs. Drexel

Fri. Sept. 21, 2001 • 6 p.m. • Parsons Field

The Huskies return to Parsons Field tonight for their first conference game of the season as they take on the Drexel Dragons. NU has won three straight, including a 1-0 victory over Sacred Heart on Tuesday. Melissa Cohen headed in Liz Dyjack's corner kick just 4:34 into the match for the game's only goal. The score marked Cohen's first of the year and Dyjack's first collegiate assist.

A freshman from Ludlow, Mass., Dyjack has recorded a point in all three of NU's victories this season. She is currently among the conference leaders in goals and points. Senior keeper Shellie Parkinson ranks first in America East in goals against average (0.35) and is the only undefeated goalie in the conference with a record of 3-0. The Huskies are the only undefeated team in the conference, with tonight's matchup marking their first conference game of the season.

In NU's season opener against Siena, it didn't take the Huskies long to find the net as senior midfielder Shannon Dwyer scored a breakaway goal just two minutes into the match off an assist from Emily Haahr. Siena answered right back, however, with a score of its own at 4:08 to tie the game 1-1. The scoring continued only three minutes later when NU's Caitlin Springer scored from 25 yards out on a pass from Jenna Thompson to give the Huskies a 2-1 advantage. Both teams went scoreless the remainder of the first half, but the Huskies added an insurance goal in the 66th minute of the second half as Dyjack netted her first regular season career goal and helped seal a 3-1 victory. Parkinson recorded four saves in net for NU.

In the Dogs second game of the season, NU scored four goals on an overwhelming 33 shots at Rider to end the Broncs' three-game winning streak. The Huskies got the only goal they would need in the 24th minute when Dyjack scored her second goal of the season on a penalty shot to put the Huskies ahead 1-0. NU added three more scores in the second half on goals by Kelly Smith, Dwyer and Lisa Norlin, en route to the victory. Redshirt Freshman keeper Cynthia Slowik saw her first action of her NU career in the match, recording one save in the final 13 minutes of play.

The Huskies are playing their home games at Parsons Field this year instead of Wentworth's Sweeney Field. NU is doing so because Parsons has been newly resurfaced with AstroPlay, the latest technology in artificial surfaces. The grass-style AstroPlay is preferred for soccer speed and makes NU eligible to host America East soccer playoff matches at Parsons.

The Huskies next face Hofstra on Sunday at 1 p.m. at Parsons Field. Last season Hofstra's 2-1 victory over the Dogs on Sept. 24 snapped NU's eight-game unbeaten streak, the longest in the programs short five-year history.
